FROM WARNER LEWIS, ESQ.

WARNER HALL, May 6th 1758.

DEAR SIR,—Lieutenant Thurston of Colo. Byrd's regiment will deliver you this & I beg leave to recommend him to you, for your kind advice, notice, & assistance, & shou'd anything happen in the course of this undertaking, wherein a friend may be requisite, I hope (upon my account) You will think of Mr. Thurston & do him all the good services in your power, as it will be doing me a singular favour. Mr. Edwd. Cary will be with him, who I likewise recommend to your kind notice. I am, Sir, yr. most Obedt. & Affectionate Servt.
